RECRUITING IN THE MIDDLE STATES. A correspondent of THE TRIBUNE returned yesterday from a trip through the Middle States, bringing on hopeful reports concerning the progress of recruiting. The quota in many of the rural districts is already full. The difficulty seems to be with the large cities, where most of the able-bodied young men enlisted and marched out with the first levies of the war. Recruiting in Orleans, Steuben, Monroe, Madison, and Wayne Counties, N. Y., is enthusiastic, and their several quotas are nearly filled.

GEN. POPE'S SMOKING OUT POLICY The Rebel smoking-out policy of General Pope throughout the department of Virginia still continues to engender enthusiasm and action among his troops. The Rebels of Fredericksburg, so long elated by the former milk-and-water policy of our commanding Generals have become disheartened, and Union refugees returning from Washington and the North are welcomed. TROUBLE WITH KANSAS INDIANS.

Advices up to the 23d of July have been received at the Indian Bureau from the Kansas agency, which plainly show that trouble is brewing there, which, if not speedily checked, may in a short time terminate in open war. Within the last few weeks seven murders have been committed by a party of desperate men who have joined the band of Rebels under Quantrell. The body of one loyal citizen was company of Indians to protect the lives and propcrty at that agency.
